

Empathy Map

Date	04 July 2026
Team ID
Project Name	A Comprehensive Measure of Well-Being
Maximum Marks	4 Marks

Empathy Map

An empathy map is used to understand users through four perspectives: Says, Thinks, Does, and Feels. It helps identify the needs and challenges of users working with HDI data. For the HDI Prediction using Machine Learning project, it focuses on policymakers and researchers who analyze education, health, and income indicators. This helps in designing an ML-based system that predicts HDI accurately and supports better decision-making.

